St. Gilda's Guild

for Women Students

THE Guild of St. Hilda in Trinity Church was organized in the autumn of 1911. It was named from Hilda, the famous head of Whitby Abbey, Northumberland, England. Any woman student who makes Trinity Church her home while in Boston is eligible for membership in the Guild. The objects of the Guild are:

1. To strengthen and deepen the spiritual life of communicants of the church during their stay in Boston.
2. To provide an organization in Trinity Church which shall take the place for the time of the various guilds with which the students may have been connected in their own parish churches.
3. To interest in the church those who have no definite church connections.

An Office for Saint Hilda's Guild

In the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth :

And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord:
Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, Born of the Virgin Mary : Suffered under Pontius Pilate, Was crucified, dead, and buried: He descended into hell ; The third day he rose again from the dead: He ascended into heaven, And sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty : From thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost: The holy Catholic Church; The Communion of Saints:
The Forgiveness of sins: The Resurrection of the body: And the Life everlasting. Amen.

V. The Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit.

V. Let us pray.

Our Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, As it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

V. O Lord, open thou our lips.

R. And our mouth shall show forth thy praise.

V. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

V. Praise ye the Lord.

R. The Lord's Name be praised.

The Collect for the day.

A Prayer for St. Hilda's Guild.

O Lord Jesus Christ, who art the Way, the Truth and the Life, graciously behold the members of this Guild. Lead us every day in the way of glad and loving service, grant to us the vision of the truth that makes us free, and make us partakers here and now of that eternal life which comes from the knowledge and love of Thee. Amen.
